

An NBA basketball player was quoted as saying "You've got to hate to lose more than you love to win."

This year we are going to follow the Miami HEAT philosophy -
"GOOD ENOUGH - ISN'T ENOUGH!"

What do these sayings mean & how can we create a saying similar to that about your education & learning?

You have to HATE to FAIL....

More than you LOVE to SUCCEED!

What do you think this means?

How can this meaning apply to you and in our classroom?

GO GATORS!!!
